

I request that you please hold off on making any decisions on Docket 02-277 until further public debate and review of the docket can be performed both by the public and Congress. People fear what they don't know. Let this information be publicly reviewed and decided on.